

Volunteer Recruitment

Would you like to help young girls explore their interests, skills, goals, and dreams?

You can! Girl Scouts of Greater New York is seeking troop volunteers to help build girls of courage, confidence and character. Troop volunteers are an integral part of our organization, and our Girl Scouts need you!

What are my responsibilities as a Troop Volunteer?

As a Girl Scout volunteer you will work with other volunteers in your community to help manage the troop, it's a team effort. There are a myriad of ways volunteers can support the troop from being a chaperone, helping at meetings, being the troop cookie contact, etc. Whether you have an hour a week or an hour a month, there is flexibility to allow you to be part of the Girl Scouts.

- Have fun!
- Participate in Girl Scout leadership trainings.
- Meet with the troop on a regular basis.
- Help girls take responsibility for the troop. Learn how to implement the Girl Scout Leadership Experience.
- Encourage the participation of parents or other adults in the community who can enrich Girl Scouting by sharing their skills and knowledge.
- Be a positive role model and make a difference in the lives of girls.

Let's get started

Before meeting with a troop, new volunteers must attend trainings. Girl Scouts of Greater New York provides all volunteers with trainings and enrichment sessions that allow adults to learn and grow into their roles and get the most out of the Girl Scout experience. Your specialist will help you start this with the Getting Started training, all other trainings – locations and times – can be found at girlscoutsnyc.org
