Dear Sir or Madam:

We invite our youth to apply to become a part of the Family Court Division Youth Leadership Council of the New York City Law Department. We are seeking high school students, between the ages of 14-21, to be the youth voices we need to improve policies in the City of New York.

A Youth Leadership Council is a group of trained young people who work in partnership with adult leaders on a defined area of policy, practices and/or service to impact individuals and communities with a focus on youth. The Youth Leadership Council for the Family Court Division will be responsible for observing all aspects of our processes in court to provide feedback from the perspective of all the stakeholders on a variety of issues including court efficiency, technology, case filings, dispositions and victim impact.

We ask that you encourage the youth in your area to apply for a position on the Family Court Division Youth Leadership Council. Enclosed are further details about the Family Court Division, its Youth Leadership Council, and the Application. The application submission deadline is Friday, September 25, 2015. Applications will be accepted via regular mail, email, and/ or fax to:
