NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Jesse Hamilton

2016 Internship Program

---

Each intern will have the opportunity to work alongside a staffer in their field of interest, and apply their interests in the projects they are assigned. Interns will also learn how about the New York City and New York State political system.

Below we have highlighted the various opportunities available:

- Communications
- Legislative
- Constituent Services
- Community Engagement
- Special Events

Desired Qualifications:

- Ability to write and communicate clearly with staff and constituents.
- Professional demeanor and ability to represent the office and the Senator appropriately.
- Familiarity with city government is a plus, but not required.
- Proficiency in written or spoken: Spanish, French or Chinese is a major plus, but not required.

During this internship, each intern will gain experience in a fast-paced, high-level office environment and serve the State of New York. Interns in the Senator's legislative office will be exposed to policy-based research and analysis, communications development, and media monitoring.
