

Reimagine Prospect Park

Over the last six months we gathered community input on how to shape the future of Prospect Park's Rose Garden—a little-known area in the northeast corner of the Park—into a welcoming place for all of Brooklyn's diverse communities. Now we want to share all the great feedback and ideas we received to narrow down the options!

Join us at a community event to:

- Hear a report back of all the input we have collected
- Narrow down options for the future of the Rose Garden
- Learn about the design process and next steps
- Get information on how to stay involved

Your input will help shape the future of the Rose Garden!
