

You can help us grow a better New York.

It's summertime, and our urban farms are in full bloom! They bring fresh food, therapeutic farming, and employment opportunities to over 300 people every year.

Volunteers keep our farms thriving and beautiful. And summer is the perfect time to lend a hand (and a shovel). Volunteer on your own or with friends and colleagues!

Click here to learn how you can get involved.

Excited to get started right away? We are currently looking for volunteers to help build a new garden at our newest supported housing site in Brooklyn!

When: Saturday, July 15th, 10am-3pm
Where: 8 Rockaway Avenue, Brooklyn, NY

Spend a summer afternoon enjoying the sun and giving back. Pizza will be served!

To sign up and for more information, contact volunteer@sus.org.

