

Flatbush African Burial Ground Remembrance and Redevelopment Task Force

Honoring The Past, Building The Future

Tune in to the fourth meeting of the Flatbush African Burial Ground Remembrance and Redevelopment Task Force for a discussion on affordable housing and other uses, including youth space and programming, and public engagement.

Date: Wednesday, March 24

Time: 5:30 pm

Location: Virtual—view the livestream at fabgtaskforce.nyc/get-involved

(all meeting materials will be posted at the same link)

About the Task Force

As part of the transformation of a City-owned vacant lot on Church Avenue, the Flatbush African Burial Ground Remembrance and Redevelopment Task Force is leading an effort to honor an African burial ground and bring 100% affordable housing and a youth community facility to Flatbush.

Get Involved

Join us through this process, which will continue through mid-2021 and include livestreamed meetings, public workshops, and a community questionnaire to bring in more perspectives. Livestreams, recordings, and materials from all Task Force meetings are available at fabgtaskforce.nyc/get-involved.

