Share Your NYC Neighborhood Stories

The Neighborhood Stories project is an inspiring storytelling initiative by the NYC Department of Records & Information Services that aims to gather oral history-style interviews from New Yorkers across the five boroughs and permanently preserve them in the collections of the Municipal Archives. Recording and preserving personal memories of life in our community is simple and accessible, thanks to a new virtual format. Whether you are a long time resident or have lived here for just a few years, you're invited to include your own story in the archive. Visit the Neighborhood Stories website to learn more and sign up to share your story: www.archives.nyc/neighborhoodstories.
